

FOREWORD

This is the 1952 Cody Family Association Directory; we are happy to hand it to you. It is as complete as we are able to make it. It could be more complete in many lines of our family, but numerous families have not co-operated in furnishing their material nor in responding to our inquiries. They alone are responsible; perhaps they will do better in the future. Every opportunity has been afforded these delinquents.

We call your attention to the index of this book; it is not a complete index, but it does include the name of every living adult descendant: by adult is meant everyone twenty-one years of age and upward. The exceptions to this are that any child under twenty-one who is married is indexed; also the name of the late Colonel William Frederick Cody is carried in the index for ready reference.

Errors will be found in this book; we have checked against errors to the best of our ability. If you notice an error in your group, do let us know.

If you like the book, please give it good publicity among your group, and boost its sale; it has to be paid for from the subscriptions received. If you have fault to find, tell us, so that we may plan for future improvements.
